

Installation instructions (macOS legacy release)

Requirements

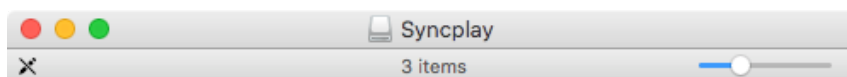

macOS 10.6.8 Snow Leopard or later.

(users on 10.12 Sierra and following need to use the regular macOS release)

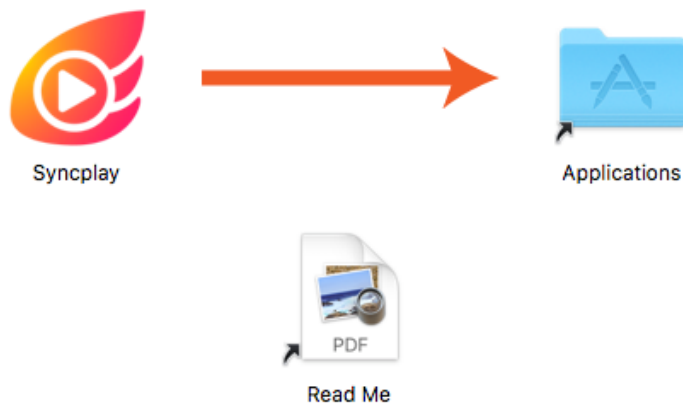

A supported media player, for example:

- VLC: <https://www.videolan.org/vlc/#download>
- mpv: https://laboratory.stolendata.net/~djinn/mpv_osx/mpv-latest.tar.gz

Install Syncplay

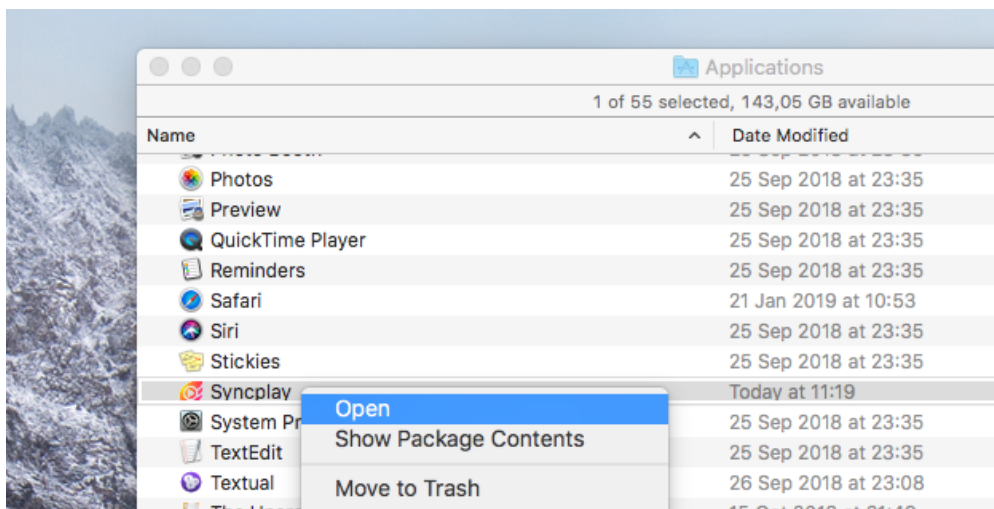

Drag Syncplay onto Applications to install it

Drag the Syncplay icon onto the Applications folder.

How to open Syncplay for the first time

Open your Applications folder, then press Ctrl on your keyboard and click on the Syncplay app.

Click Open in the dialog that pops up. Syncplay should open.

You only have to do this the first time Syncplay is opened on your system. From now on, you are all set to use Syncplay with your favorite media player.
